What do I need to know about the Gift Shop market?

The following summary statistics have been taken from market research reports and reliable resources that the Information Service uses to compile industry information. They should give you an indication of how your industry is faring at present and whether there is demand for your type of business:

- ◆ The income squeeze will also impact how consumers are choosing to shop with certain retailers. When shopping for gifts and products, whether online or in-store, most consumers gravitate toward retailers that offer good value and a wide variety of items across categories. While online penetration of sales, has seen peaks and troughs since March 2020 it remains significantly ahead of pre-pandemic levels, and we expect that online shopping habits will be forever elevated as a result of the pandemic. (Intel, Seasonal Shopping (Autumn/Winter) UK 2022).
- ◆ Across all categories, beauty and personal care products are more likely to be gifted as individual products than gift sets. With greater awareness of wastage and more careful consideration of spending money, this points to concern for gifting unwanted products that come as part of the set. 70% of adults bought an individual BPC product as a gift in 2022, while 51% bought a BPC gift set. (Intel, Gifts in Beauty & Personal Care (BPC), May 2022).
- ◆ The Online Greetings Card Retailers industry has benefited from strong expansion in the wider online market, as consumers have searched for cheaper deals and often preferred the convenience of online platforms. Demand for personalised cards has further supported growth. Industry revenue is expected to increase at a compound annual rate of 15.2% over the five years through 2022-23 to reach £284.7 million. (IBISWorld, Online Greetings Card Retailers in the UK, June 2022).
- ◆ The global photo printing and merchandise market was valued at $19,624.05 million in 2020 and is estimated to grow to $24,980.1 million in 2025. This will create an incremental growth opportunity worth $5,356.05 million between 2020 and 2025, which translates to around 28% of the market size in 2020. In this moderate growth environment, vendors must be both aggressive and defensive while leveraging the growth opportunities available. With limited growth opportunities, gaining market share from competition will be an important lever to drive growth for market participants. (Technavio, Global Photo Printing and Merchandise Market, 2021-2025).
- ◆ Giftware is expected to account for 24.1% of industry revenue in 2022-23.2. This segment has expanded its share of the market as retailers have introduced various value-added products. Many florists have attempted to boost revenue through the supplementary sales of champagne, wine, balloons, toys, chocolate, cards and other gifts. (IBISWorld, Florists in the UK, August 2022).

Where can I find more information on my market?

The Information Service has access to a number of databases which can offer more detail on this industry. Some of these reports are listed below - if you would like to be sent extracts from any of these reports, please contact us on 0300 013 4753 or email info@bgateway.com.

- ◆ Mintel – Christmas Gift Buying UK (February 2022). On average, gift buyers spent £375 on gifts for Christmas 2021, up 9.6% on 2020 levels. This backs up the strength of retail sales and festive demand seen in 2021. Online remains the most popular way to buy gifts, with 85% of gift buyers doing so via this channel in 2021.
- ◆ Technavio - Global Non-photo Personalized Gifts Market (2021-2025). The global non-photo personalized gifts market was valued at $15,788.57 million in 2020 and is estimated to grow to $24,535.18 million in 2025. This will create an incremental growth opportunity worth $8,746.61 million between 2020 and 2025, which translates to around 56% of the market size in 2020. This represents significant growth opportunities for vendors. Vendors can continue to grow by leveraging the inherent growth opportunities available within the market while avoiding direct competition.
- ◆ Mintel – Seasonal Shopping (Autumn/Winter) UK (2022). Mintel estimates that UK consumers spent a total of £3.3 billion on autumn/winter seasonal shopping events in 2021/22, which included back-to-school, Halloween, Bonfire Night and Valentine’s Day. Valentine’s Day purchasing levels remained stable year-on-year and returned to pre-pandemic levels (46%). Smaller ticket items such as greetings cards (21%), flowers (14%) and chocolates (18%) topped shopping lists as popular gifts.
- ◆ Statista – This is another of our subscription databases and it provides statistics on many topics within the gifting industry. For example – Popular purchase locations for Christmas gifts in the UK 2022, Planned time to start shopping for Christmas gifts in the UK 2022 and UK Consumers’ priorities for buying Christmas gifts 2022.

How can I find out about my competitors?

Business Gateway's online guide to Competitor Analysis explains how to find your competitors, how to research what they're doing and how to act on what you learn about them.

Immediate competition will be from other businesses in your local area. There are several online directories which can be used to find company information and generate lists easily and at no expense. Many Local Authorities also publish local business directories on the web. Below are some key web resources:

- ◆ General business directories such as Yell ,Thomson Local or Google Maps
- ◆ Trade specialists like EuroPages (European directory), The Wholesaler or Free Index
- ◆ Business to business (B2B) specialists such as Kompass

Likewise, your local Chamber of Commerce may publish a members' directory; find your local Chamber on the Scottish Chambers website.

Once you've identified who your competitors are, the next step is to gather information on the way they do business. Which services do they provide? How do they market themselves? How much do they charge?

To learn about your competitors:

- ◆ Look for articles or adverts in local newspapers, trade press and directories.
- ◆ Try to read their marketing material; if the company has an online presence, visit the company's website as a first port of call. Not only does it give you a better understanding of the company's activities, it can also offer a wealth of information such as a company history or staff biographies, as well as the company's partners or suppliers
- ◆ Search for information on limited UK companies via the Companies House website
- ◆ Gain an insight into your competitor's performance using credit checks and the accounts that limited companies are required to submit to Companies House each year.

We can provide credit checks free of charge; if you are interested in using this resource, or looking for us to help you find relevant publications, please contact us by emailing info@bgateway.com or by calling 0300 013 4753

What about suppliers?

Choosing and Managing Suppliers can help you decide what you need from a supplier, how to identify one and how to choose one to deal with.

Trade associations or industry specific organisations may also be able to recommend suppliers or contacts. You can also use the aforementioned resources for finding competitors to find suppliers.

Once you have decided on a supplier, we can run a credit check on the company to help assess their financial stability. We provide credit checks free of charge; if you are interested in using the resource please info@bgateway.com or by calling 0300 013 4753.

Who are my customers?

Your business plan should include information about the customers you would expect. Business Gateway's guides on Market and customer research will help you to identify new trends, opportunities, customers and competitors.

It can be useful to group your customers by geographical location, age or lifestyle. The websites listed below are freely available and can provide most of this information. If you can't find what you're looking for from these website, please contact us and one of the team will be happy to help:

- ◆ Access the latest population estimates from the National Records of Scotland \(NRS\). NRS also offers demographic factsheets for each council area in Scotland, which can provide summary statistics for the area you will be based in.
- ◆ Information from the most recent census in 2011 is released via the official website. See in particular the Census Area Profiles. Clicking on your area of interest will give the latest population figures, including estimates by age.
- ◆ Understanding Scottish Places has interactive profiles of towns and cities across Scotland. It can be useful for understanding the interrelationships and flows between towns, and also gives comparisons between two or more places.
- ◆ Scottish Government Statistics provide accurate and up-to-date statistics on Scotland, covering population, health, education and housing.
- ◆ The Scottish Household Survey provides information on the structure, characteristics, attitudes and behaviour of Scottish households, both at a national and local level.
- ◆ Office for National Statistics \(ONS\) is the recognised national statistical body for the UK. ONS covers a wide range of demographic, economic and social issues at a UK level.
