What do I need to know about the Local & Organic Food Production market?

The following summary statistics have been taken from market research reports and reliable resources that the Information Service uses to compile industry information. They should give you an indication of how your industry is faring at present and whether there is demand for your type of business:

- ◆ According to Mintel shopping ethically remains a key concern for consumers, however the cost-of-living crisis and supply chain and production issues affecting stock levels could mean that consumers instead choose to trade down. There is keen interest in food waste services with 30% of respondents saying they would be interested in food waste subscription services. (Mintel, Ethical Retailing, UK, August 2022).
- ◆ Buying seasonal produce is seen as a good way to reduce one's environmental footprint by 71% of adults. (Mintel, The Ethical Food Consumer, UK, 2021).
- ◆ Organic Food retailing industry revenue is anticipated to increase over the five years through 2020-21 at a compound rate of 7.5%. Demand has been driven by a sharper focus on health since the COVID 19 pandemic and the widespread belief by that organic food is healthier and more sustainable than non-organic produce. According to a survey by the Ethical Consumer, 33% of respondents chose organic produce due to health reasons. (IBISWorld, Organic Food Retailing in the UK, March 2021).
- ◆ Fruit growing industry revenue is forecast to grow at a compound annual rate of 3.2% over the five years through 2022-23, to £991.1 million. However, average profit has fallen, mainly due to the weak pound and supply chain disruptions increasing purchase costs. Despite the increase in work permits under the Seasonal Worker Scheme, industry revenue is expected to fall by 1.1% in the current year due to the high cost of picking. (IBISWorld, Fruit Growing in the UK, August 2022).
- ◆ The national organisation for this industry is Organic Farmers and Growers (www.ofgorganic.org). Other industry bodies include the Organic Trade Board (tinyurl.com/yagxyavk), Scotland Food and Drink (www.foodanddrink.scot), and the Soil Association (www.soilassociation.org).

Where can I find more information on my market?

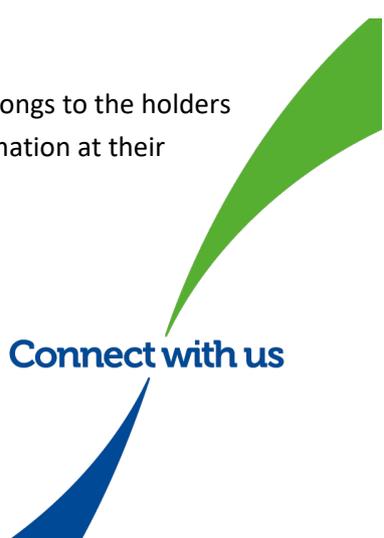

The Information Service has access to a number of databases which can offer more detail on this industry. Some of these reports are listed below - if you would like to be sent extracts from any of these reports, please contact us on 0300 013 4753 or email info@bgateway.com.

- ◆ IBISWorld – Organic Food Retailing in the UK (March 2021). Over the five years through 2025-26, industry revenue is expected to increase at a compound annual rate of 8% to reach £1.2 billion. Changing consumer trends and diets have primarily driven the Organic Retailing industry's growth. Environmental concerns have also supported organic food demand, with more consumers shunning products that are produced in a way that harms the environment. Recent disease outbreaks and concerns about contamination have also made consumers more mindful of the foods they consume, which has increased demand for organic produce. Competition has remained intense over the past five-year period, particularly from supermarkets which have increased their organic product offerings to cater to the growing market. Online sales and box schemes are anticipated to become increasingly popular.
- ◆ Mintel – Ethical Retailing, UK (2022). Locally sourced products and transparency are key for consumers. Respondents asked about their motivations for buying from an ethical retailer/brand said companies or brands who source or make products locally would encourage them (35%) and 34% said detailed information about materials/ingredients used (eg origins of materials).
- ◆ IBISWorld – Vegetable Growing in the UK (August 2022). The Soil Association Certification Organic Market Report 2021 has revealed the UK organic market is now worth £2.79 billion, after sales grew by 12.6% in 2020. According to the report the market has reached its highest growth rate in 15 years. The Soil Association say farmers are developing platforms and business operations to sell direct to the public, with online sales already accounting for 36.2% in 2021. The convenience of box schemes are likely to continue to appeal to affluent, ethically minded consumers. New opportunities are expected to attract new operators to the organic segment of the market.

How can I find out about my competitors?

Business Gateway's online guide to Competitor Analysis explains how to find your competitors, how to research what they're doing and how to act on what you learn about them.

Immediate competition will be from other businesses in your local area. There are several online directories which can be used to find company information and generate lists easily and at no expense. Many Local Authorities also publish local business directories on the web. Below are some key web resources:

- ◆ General business directories such as Yell ,Thomson Local or Google Maps
- ◆ Trade specialists like EuroPages (European directory), The Wholesaler or Free Index
- ◆ Business to business (B2B) specialists such as Kompass

Likewise, your local Chamber of Commerce may publish a members' directory; find your local Chamber on the Scottish Chambers website.

Once you've identified who your competitors are, the next step is to gather information on the way they do business. Which services do they provide? How do they market themselves? How much do they charge?

To learn about your competitors:

- ◆ Look for articles or adverts in local newspapers, trade press and directories.
- ◆ Try to read their marketing material; if the company has an online presence, visit the company's website as a first port of call. Not only does it give you a better understanding of the company's activities, it can also offer a wealth of information such as a company history or staff biographies, as well as the company's partners or suppliers
- ◆ Search for information on limited UK companies via the Companies House website
- ◆ Gain an insight into your competitor's performance using credit checks and the accounts that limited companies are required to submit to Companies House each year.

We can provide credit checks free of charge; if you are interested in using this resource, or looking for us to help you find relevant publications, please contact us by emailing info@bgateway.com or by calling 0300 013 4753

What about suppliers?

Choosing and Managing Suppliers can help you decide what you need from a supplier, how to identify one and how to choose one to deal with.

Trade associations or industry specific organisations may also be able to recommend suppliers or contacts. You can also use the aforementioned resources for finding competitors to find suppliers.

Once you have decided on a supplier, we can run a credit check on the company to help assess their financial stability. We provide credit checks free of charge; if you are interested in using the resource please info@bgateway.com or by calling 0300 013 4753.

Who are my customers?

Your business plan should include information about the customers you would expect. Business Gateway's guides on Market and customer research will help you to identify new trends, opportunities, customers and competitors.

It can be useful to group your customers by geographical location, age or lifestyle. The websites listed below are freely available and can provide most of this information. If you can't find what you're looking for from these websites, please contact us and one of the team will be happy to help:

- ◆ Access the latest population estimates from the National Records of Scotland \(NRS\). NRS also offers demographic factsheets for each council area in Scotland, which can provide summary statistics for the area you will be based in.
- ◆ Information from the most recent census in 2011 is released via the official website. See in particular the Census Area Profiles. Clicking on your area of interest will give the latest population figures, including estimates by age.
- ◆ Understanding Scottish Places has interactive profiles of towns and cities across Scotland. It can be useful for understanding the interrelationships and flows between towns, and gives comparisons between two or more places.
- ◆ Scottish Government Statistics provide accurate and up-to-date statistics on Scotland, covering population, health, education and housing.
- ◆ Scottish Household Survey provides information on the structure, characteristics, attitudes and behaviour of Scottish households, both at a national and local level.
- ◆ Office for National Statistics \(ONS\) is the recognised national statistical body for the UK. ONS covers a wide range of demographic, economic and social issues at a UK level.
