What do I need to know about the Travel Agent market?

The following summary statistics have been taken from market research reports and reliable resources that the Information Service uses to compile industry information. They should give you an indication of how your industry is faring at present and whether there is demand for your type of business:

- ◆ Over the five years through 2029-30, industry revenue is predicted to grow at a compound annual rate of 2.1% to reach £32.5 billion. In the short term, bookings for cheaper package holidays will support travel agents. Rising disposable incomes following a challenging two years through 2023-24 will result in UK tourists taking more expensive holidays. To help propel sales, travel agencies will supplement their services by fully integrating their businesses with online platforms and introducing more niche services, like youth student travel and trips catered to those over 60. (IBISWorld, Travel Agencies in the UK, April 2025).
- ◆ The value of the holiday market has continued to recover from the pandemic. In 2024 £65.8 billion was spent on domestic and overseas holidays taken by UK residents. In the long term the sustained demand for tourism will ensure the market continues to grow with predicted growth of 12% over the period 2025-2029. (Mintel, Holiday Review, UK, February 2025)
- ◆ Travel and tourism in the UK is currently at a tipping point, with consumer spending under cost-of-living pressures and relatively high interest rates. Local consumers like to travel and volumes are expected to increase, but much of the outlook for value growth over the forecast period will depend largely on the performance of the UK economy. Should interest rates be reduced in 2025, thereby driving up consumer confidence, value sales growth will be supported with a return to the recent trend of trading up. On the other hand, if the pound sterling remains strong, it will benefit outbound travel, whilst at the same time deterring inbound travel, especially from the UK's European neighbours. (Euromonitor, Travel in the United Kingdom, September 2024).
- ◆ Spending on domestic holidays taken by British residents was estimated to reach £12.8 billion in 2024. Value is expected to increase by 12% between 2025-2029 to £15.8 billion in 2029. (Mintel, Holiday Planning and Booking Process, UK, June 2024).
- ◆ The national organisation for this industry is The Association of British Travel Agents \(ABTA\). Industry bodies include the Scottish Passenger Agents Association \(SPAA\) and Visit Scotland.

How can I find out about my competitors?

Business Gateway's online guide to Competitor Analysis explains how to find your competitors, how to research what they're doing and how to act on what you learn about them.

Immediate competition will be from other businesses in your local area. There are several online directories which can be used to find company information and generate lists easily and at no expense. Many Local Authorities also publish local business directories on the web. Below are some key web resources:

- ◆ General business directories such as Yell, Thomson Local or Google Maps
- ◆ Trade specialists like EuroPages (European directory), The Wholesaler or Free Index
- ◆ Business to business (B2B) specialists such as Kompass

Likewise, your local Chamber of Commerce may publish a members' directory; find your local Chamber on the Scottish Chambers website.

Once you've identified who your competitors are, the next step is to gather information on the way they do business. Which services do they provide? How do they market themselves? How much do they charge?

To learn about your competitors:

- ◆ Look for articles or adverts in local newspapers, trade press and directories.
- ◆ Try to read their marketing material; if the company has an online presence, visit the company's website as a first port of call. Not only does it give you a better understanding of the company's activities, it can also offer a wealth of information such as a company history or staff biographies, as well as the company's partners or suppliers
- ◆ Search for information on limited UK companies via the Companies House website
- ◆ Gain an insight into your competitor's performance using credit checks and the accounts that limited companies are required to submit to Companies House each year.

We can provide credit checks free of charge; if you are interested in using this resource, or looking for us to help you find relevant publications, please contact us by emailing info@bgateway.com or by calling 0300 013 4753

What about suppliers?

Choosing and Managing Suppliers can help you decide what you need from a supplier, how to identify one and how to choose one to deal with.

Trade associations or industry specific organisations may also be able to recommend suppliers or contacts. You can also use the aforementioned resources for finding competitors to find suppliers.

Once you have decided on a supplier, we can run a credit check on the company to help assess their financial stability. We provide credit checks free of charge; if you are interested in using the resource please info@bgateway.com or by calling 0300 013 4753.

Who are my customers?

Your business plan should include information about the customers you would expect. Business Gateway's guides on Market and customer research will help you to identify new trends, opportunities, customers and competitors.

It can be useful to group your customers by geographical location, age or lifestyle. The websites listed below are freely available and can provide most of this information. If you can't find what you're looking for from these websites, please contact us and one of the team will be happy to help:

- ◆ Access the latest population estimates from the National Records of Scotland \(NRS\). NRS also offers demographic factsheets for each council area in Scotland, which can provide summary statistics for the area you will be based in.
- ◆ Information from the most recent census in 2011 is released via the official website. See in particular the Census Area Profiles. Clicking on your area of interest will give the latest population figures, including estimates by age.
- ◆ Understanding Scottish Places has interactive profiles of towns and cities across Scotland. It can be useful for understanding the interrelationships and flows between towns, and also gives comparisons between two or more places.
- ◆ Scottish Government Statistics provide accurate and up-to-date statistics on Scotland, covering population, health, education and housing.
- ◆ The Scottish Household Survey provides information on the structure, characteristics, attitudes and behaviour of Scottish households, both at a national and local level.
- ◆ Office for National Statistics \(ONS\) is the recognised national statistical body for the UK. ONS covers a wide range of demographic, economic and social issues at a UK level.
